Friday, April 25, 2003 – Pharah Jean-Philippe has just finished the role of Calpurnia in Harper Lee’s To Kill A Mockingbird which opened to rave reviews. Here’s what some critics have to say...

Daily RECORD, Friday, April 11, 2003

...Several supporting actors are truly standouts, starting with Pharah Jean-Philippe (of the New Jersey Repertory Company), who brings a subtle touch of humor to the calm, no-nonsense black housekeeper Calpurnia, who is mother and mentor to the motherless Scout and Jem..... - Debra Scacciaferro

THE STAR-LEDGER, Tuesday, April 8, 2003

...Pharah Jean-Philippe is also proficient as Calpurnia, [Atticus] Finch’s maid, who knows she’s not an official member of the family, but exerts as much quiet power as she can, all to keep a motherless household in hand.....- Peter Filichia

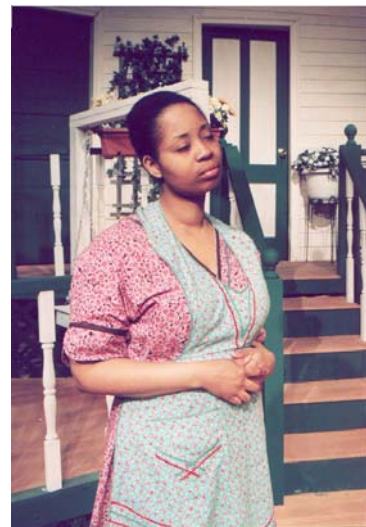

TIMES HERALD-RECORD, Friday, April 11, 2003

...The rest of the cast is uniformly good, especially ... Pharah Jean-Philippe as Calpurnia.....- Chris Farlekas
